

LIVE WEBCAST FROM IFHE HYDERABAD IN “THE ICFAI UNIVERSITY, DEHRADUN”

BY Mr. SONAM WANGCHUK

On 9th Oct. 2017, faculty and students of “The ICFAI University, Dehradun attended a live webcast by Mr. Sonam Wangchuk on “Innovative and Informative Lecture on Educational Reforms”. The live webcast was directed IFHE Hyderabad. Mr. Wangchuk hails from Leh Ladakh and is known for solving real life problems using high school science. Popular Hindi movie “3 Idots” is inspired by his life and accomplishments. He is a great innovator, social entrepreneur and a teacher par excellence.

In his talk, he said that our biggest help are our problems or challenges. We should turn our problems into opportunities and use them as a way ahead. He emphasized more on mother tongue for the learning process. “The moment we understand the concept, we should share it”. This he discovered in learning. He talked about the alternative schooling for the students not performing well in Formal Education”. He further focused on helping the bright minds with variety of capabilities. He said that “Life is not what I need but it is all about what needs me”. He categorically said that failure can mature us more than success. Fear success but not failure. Failure is stimulation for positive response.

His address was very enlightening and full of rich experience. It was a privilege for the faculty and students of various schools of “The ICFAI University, Dehradun,” to attend his address through LIVE WEBCAST from IFHE Hyderabad.
